It will be observed from the records that in Antarvalli Village of Ranebennur Tq, Dharwar Dist., there is a Panchamana matt whose mula-guru was one Chikkeswara Swamy. Subordinate to this matt, there is another Branch matt at Bahadargatte in Chitaldrug Tq. Phaniyappa Swamy is the present Guru of Antarvalli matt. The Guru of Bandargatte matt — the late Niranjana Swamy died 10 years ago. S I R,

With reference to your office memorandum No.2870/Muz. 177-10 dated the 8th May 1911 forwarding for disposal or report the several petitions received from Nagalingachary of Hosabhimasamudra, Chitaldrug Taluk, I have the honor to state that from the local enquiry made by the Amildar it is learnt that the Swamy of Bahadargatta Mutt in the Chitaldrug Taluk had applied for licenses in the years 1883, 1891 and 1896. The one issued in 1883 is not forthcoming. But a reference is made thereto in the other licenses issued in 1891 and 1896. The petitioner pleads his inability to produce a copy of the order issued in 1883. As the " To and From " registers of the Judicial Branch pertaining to this year have been destroyed under Rule of Practice No. 77 dated 7th December 1907 no clue can be had even in this office.

2. The leading members of other communities when examined have stated that the Swamy may be permitted to go in public streets but not with any insignia for the use of which he has no claim.

3. Out of the marginally noted insignias to which claim et up I am inclined to recommend that he may be permitted to use ordinary ones viz, 1. Mena, 2. Kempuchatri, 3. Kahale and 4. which were allowed to be used by the Sanehalli Mutt in this District (vide Government Order No. 300-9/Muz 83-07 dated 3rd August 1909).

4. The file of vernacular papers is herewith sent for reference.

" That Nilakantaswami though not consecrated as Guru of the said Mutt is considered as such by reason of his being brought up in the Mutt from his infancy.

That the property of the Mutt is not with Nilakantal Swamy but it is in the possession of Murujavadaswamy of Mayakonda, as Niranjanaswamy, the late Guru of the Mutt has left a will to the effect that Basappa Swami, son of Murujavadaswami should be appointed his successor and that the will has been duly registered in the Arasikere Taluk.
